

Mary C. Raymond

Mary C. Raymond is a member of Damon & Morey's Corporate and Business Law, Health Care and FDA Practice Groups. Her practice is concentrated in the areas of food and drug, health, and environmental law.

Mrs. Raymond works for for-profit and not-for profit organizations on corporate formation; risk management; contract issues; venture capital, grants, finance and audit issues; administrative/agency proceedings and compliance issues. Chair of the firm's FDA Practice Group, she advises clients on matters involving FDA petitions, HACCP, product recalls, regulatory compliance, retail establishments, clinical drug trials, NDAs, OTC drug issues, drug labeling/marketing, medical device approvals and recalls, biotechnology/safety, import/export issues. Her health care experience involves issues of reimbursement, HIPAA, risk sharing arrangements, credentialing, reimbursement and billing issues, compliance, Health Department surveys, rate appeals, and administrative hearings. Her environmental practice includes matters related to CERCLA and Navigation Law, agricultural environmental Law, statutory and regulatory compliance and issues related to the transfer of real property.

She is admitted to practice in all New York State Courts, the District of Columbia, the United States District Court for the Western District of New York and the United States Bankruptcy Court.

As a member of the board of directors of St. Jerome Hospital in Batavia, Mrs. Raymond was involved in physician credentialing, physician recruitment and reimbursement related matters. She served on the board of directors of the Health Systems Agency of Western New York and was a regional board member and program chair of the Western New York chapter of the American Heart Association. Mrs. Raymond is a former regional liaison to the Cornell statewide Food, Diet and Health Program Committee and chairperson of the Cornell Cooperative Extension Marketing Committee. Mrs. Raymond also served on the board of directors of the Batavia YMCA and was the Food and Agricultural Liaison to the Genesee 2000 Education Business Alliance.

Mrs. Raymond is the current Chair of the Board of Directors of the Genesee County Chamber of Commerce and Chairs its Public Policy Committee, and a member and Past President of the Batavia Rotary Club. She is also a member of the American Health Lawyers Association, the Association of Food and Drug Officials, the Genesee County Bar Association and the Health and Environmental Law Sections of the Erie County and the New York State Bar Associations. She lectures frequently on FDA and health care issues. As a member of the board of directors of St. Jerome Hospital in Batavia, Mrs. Raymond was involved in physician credentialing, physician recruitment and reimbursement related matters. She served on the board of directors of the Health Systems Agency of Western New York and was a regional board member and program chair of the Western New York chapter of the American Heart Association. Mrs. Raymond is a former regional liaison to the Cornell Statewide Food, Diet and Health Program Committee and chairperson of the Cornell Cooperative Extension Marketing Committee. Mrs. Raymond also served on the board of directors of the Batavia YMCA and was Food and Agricultural Liaison to the Genesee 2000 Education Business Alliance.

Contact Information

Direct Dial: (716) 858-3783
mraymond@damonmorey.com

Concentrations

Agriculture Law
Business and Corporate Law
Environmental Regulatory Compliance
Food & Drug Administration
Health Care

Education

State University of New York
College at Plattsburgh - B.S. in Education, cum laude

Buffalo State College - M.A. in
Education, cum laude

State University of New York
University of Buffalo School of Law - J.D., cum laude

ATTORNEY OVERVIEW

