

William F. Savino

ATTORNEY OVERVIEW

Contact Information

(716) 858-3790

wsavino@damonmorey.com

Concentrations

Business Litigation

Bankruptcy

Construction

Corporate Governance

Litigation

Uniform Commercial Code

Education

University of Rochester - B.A., with high distinction, 1971

State University of New York at Buffalo - J.D., cum laude, 1975

William F. Savino is a Senior Partner and the Chair of the Business Litigation and Insolvency Department at Damon & Morey LLP. His responsibilities include matters involving business litigation (including construction, corporate and partnership dissolution, and Uniform Commercial Code matters) and insolvency (both debtor and creditor) with an emphasis on reorganizations.

Mr. Savino is admitted to practice in New York (including all four districts of its federal courts) and Ohio as well as the Second and Eleventh Circuit Courts.

An instructor at the State University of New York at Buffalo, Mr. Savino teaches Business Law for the School of Management and Commercial Litigation for the School of Law. A frequent lecturer, he has recently made presentations for the NYS Bar Association, Bar Association of Erie County, Erie Institute of Law, NYS Society of Certified Public Accountants, the American Bankruptcy Institute as well as for numerous continuing education organizations.

In addition to speaking engagements, Mr. Savino has written extensively on the subjects with which he is involved. He is the co-author of the Commercial Law Section of the Syracuse Law Review, an annual survey of the legal developments in New York State Law, and a quarterly commercial litigation related column for the Buffalo Law Journal. In 2001, he co-authored an article on the Principle of "Uniform Construction" for West's UCC Bulletin.

Mr. Savino served three years as the chairperson of the Bar Association of Erie County's Commercial Law and Bankruptcy Committee. Mr. Savino was recently selected by his peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America 2008 in the field of Commercial Litigation (Copyright 2007 by Woodward/White, Inc., of Aiken, S.C.) and named among Upstate New York's "Super Lawyers." He has been listed as one of Business First of Buffalo's Who's Who in Law List for the past four years.

Bill is active in various charitable and civic organizations. He is a past director of the Western New York Jazz Society. He is also the past nationwide president of the University at Buffalo Law Alumni Association and a member of the Steering Committee for the University of Rochester's WNY Alumni Association.

