

Gregory C. Yungbluth

Mr. Yungbluth is a Senior Partner at Damon & Morey LLP, and Co-Chair of the firm's Corporate Department.

Mr. Yungbluth works primarily with local corporate and other business clients and banking institutions. The matters in which he is engaged include the formation of corporations, limited liability companies and other business entities, business start-ups, mergers, acquisitions and divestitures, debt and equity financing, and contract work of all kinds. In the area of banking law, Mr. Yungbluth is primarily involved in the closing of commercial loan transactions for both local and out-of-state lending institutions. In the early 1990s he played a lead role in a special project on behalf of the FDIC.

Mr. Yungbluth joined Damon & Morey as a partner in 1983 in conjunction with the merger of the Diebold & Millonzi firm. There, he was engaged in corporate and other business matters, with primary responsibility for the corporate and securities work on behalf of a publicly owned telecommunications company. He was also responsible for corporate, regulatory and securities work on behalf of First Empire State Corporation, the parent holding company of M&T Bank. He participated extensively in the firm's commercial lending and other banking work on behalf of M&T Bank and the former Western Savings Bank.

Mr. Yungbluth is admitted to practice in both New York and the District of Columbia. He is a member of the New York State Bar Association, the Erie County Bar Association and the District of Columbia Bar Association. Mr. Yungbluth was recently selected by his peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America 2008 in the field of Corporate Law (Copyright 2007 by Woodward/White, Inc., of Aiken, S.C.).

Mr. Yungbluth has served on the Board of Directors or as an officer for several local corporations, including The Automobile Club of Western and Central New York, and EPIC Program, Inc. He is a former member of the Board of Trustees of Canisius High School.
